A huge Thank You is due to all the IEWs, Social Workers and Grad Coaches who make these super special ceremonies happen. We recognize the amount of work it takes to put on such beautiful ceremonies and we thank you.

Hard at Work Hinzoo 'Uhut'en (They're doing Good Work)

Pictured above is our wonderful IEW team at Nusdeh Yoh: Tracy, Treena and Grant. Along with Crystal Whitehawk, Pam Spooner and yours truly. (Yes, on occasion Pam lets me leave the building)

The team at Nusdeh Yoh had the opportunity to harvest an eagle. They were set up in the gym and had students, classes and some curious staff pop by throughout the day to check on the progress. They shared teachings on how to harvest and what different part of the eagle could be used for.

Shout out to Darcy Davis for making this deadly nest!

A Big Mussi Cho for these awesome teachings!

Business Corner

Please make sure to hand in all reimbursement forms prior to the last day of school. Handing in a stack of mileage or supplies forms the last day of school is extremely taxing on the clerical staff and the accounts payable clerks at the board office. If you need any assistance with your budget, please reach out.

Sharing Out!

Back for one day only!!! Pictured above that beautiful box-o-bannock is our former IEW but newest Elder/Knowledge Holder recruit WENDY CHILD.

Our team at Ron Brent Elementary hosted an Artwork and Bannock fundraiser. Amanda, Jennine and Tyler did an exceptional job putting this event together. Wendy made 400 pieces of bannock and was sold out by noon. How do I know this...? Because by the time I arrived at 1:00pm it was all gone. However, I got a super cool student made Dream Catcher instead. Mussi Cho Ron Brent Team!

Have a good news story you'd like to share? How about some traditional knowledge you'd like to bestow on us? Feel free to email your submissions to Dorothy Stewart: dstewart@sd57.bc.ca
